Ramsgate, a favourite seaside destination of Princess Victoria, is an architectural jewel in the coastal crown of the Isle of Thanet on the north eastern edge of Kent – the Garden of England.

The importance of the town's long maritime history as a port and its fine hospitality were recognised by King George IV when he awarded the harbour Royal status – a unique accolade in mainland Britain.

He was particularly impressed by the harbour, the warm welcome and the hospitality he received when he set off from Ramsgate with the Royal Squadron for Hanover in 1820.

Today the historic harbour and its thriving modern marina are the perfect setting for a relaxing Mediterranean-style waterfront filled with a wealth of bustling bistros and restaurants. The resort's fine weather, superb sands, sea air and stunning views from the chalk cliffs alongside elegant side streets, independent shops, galleries and seaside entertainments add even more flavour to Ramsgate's popular café culture.

Roots, revival and regeneration

Ramsgate's roots lie in fishing, boat building and farming – a history still reflected in the town's passion for local produce and fish dishes. Construction of the Royal Harbour started in the mid-18th century and finished approximately 100 years later. Much of the fine maritime architecture around the harbour – the main embarkation point for the Napoleonic Wars – still stands today.

The town was perfectly placed to be adopted as a fashionable health and pleasure destination by the wealthier aristocracy during the 18th century with many aspiring to have a second residence at the seaside.

Development of the railways in the mid-19th century made the town and its beaches even more accessible to holiday makers, group excursions and day trippers from the capital and beyond. The growing number of tourists gave a welcome boost to the local economy well into the 20th century.

Today Ramsgate's many visitors are a new generation of weekend breakers, day trippers, family holiday makers, outdoor enthusiasts seeking sailing and water sports alongside walking and cycling opportunities, second homers and boat owners taking advantage of the marina and its service trades.

Their enthusiasm for coastal escapes, staycations and short breaks away from major towns and cities in exhilarating landscapes is rapidly regenerating Thanet's three distinctive resort towns and their neighbouring villages.

Exciting 21st century attractions, entertainments, activities for outdoor enthusiasts and events are now on offer alongside state-of-the-art boutique hotels, B&Bs, waterfront cafés, bistros and restaurants.

The revival of Ramsgate's visitor economy is greatly enhancing the quality of life for the town's 42,000 plus residents and leisure and pleasure seekers alike. Further investment in the seaside town includes:

Hornby Visitor Centre

Planning permission has been granted for a new visitor centre for Hornby Hobbies, providing exhibition space with terraces and a shop. This has the potential to become a significant visitor destination within Ramsgate Waterfront. The visitor centre will create a new facility for the locally-based and internationally recognised brand leader, whilst retaining the listed working slipways adjacent.

Royal Victoria Pavilion

The Grade II listed building is being developed by JD Wetherspoon into a public house, with additional commercial space. The building is owned by Thanet District Council and a lease has been agreed with JD Wetherspoon. Applications has been approved for planning permission and listed building consent, to include the refurbishment of the interior and exterior of the building.

Royal Sands

Planning permission has been granted for a redevelopment of the site for residential, commercial and leisure uses, including a hotel with conference facilities and health and fitness centre, and retail development on the seafront.

St. Augustine's Visitor Centre

The Heritage Lottery Fund is supporting the development of a state-of-the-art Pugin and St Augustine education, research and visitor centre at St Augustine Church. The visitor centre is expected to have a trial opening later this year, with the official opening in 2017.

The revival of Ramsgate's visitor economy is greatly enhancing the quality of life for the town's 42,000 plus residents, and leisure and pleasure seekers alike.

Margate, Broadstairs, Ramsgate – why visit?

Londoners have been escaping to the Isle of Thanet for more than 200 years ... for the laidback seaside vibe ... breathtaking sandy beaches ... fresh sea air ... and romantic Turner skies ...

Here at the very edge of the Garden of England, three Georgian and Victorian resorts, each with its own distinctive character – Margate, Broadstairs and Ramsgate – cluster around the bays at the far end of the peninsula.

There's a retro feel to these harbour towns, with their remarkable 18th and 19th century architecture, their classic seaside heritage and kitsch, their eclectic attractions and live arts and music venues. And there is a variety of independent places to shop, eat, drink and stay.

Miles of low chalk cliffs edge the peninsula, sheltering a string of secluded, unspoilt sandy bays. Chalk rockpools, chalk stacks and rare chalk reefs teem with wildlife. These are the closest surfing beaches to the capital city: a popular choice with southeast boarders.

Artists, writers and musicians have long been inspired by this almost-island ... and continue to be drawn here. Turner said Thanet had "the loveliest skies in all Europe" ... for Dickens, Broadstairs was "the freshest, freest place" ... and Tracey Emin declares in green neon on Margate seafront: "I never stopped loving you".

The Isle's a historic landing place steeped in symbolism for the story of Britain ... the first Saxons, Hengist and Horsa, arrived and settled here ... and St Augustine first stepped onto these shores on his way to nearby Canterbury.

For this is the furthest south east you can go in Britain ... almost touching mainland Europe ... yet these days only 75 minutes from central London ...

And now with the Turner Contemporary gallery, the return of the iconic pleasure park Dreamland, reimagined for the 21st century, and high-speed trains from the capital ... a new generation is discovering this original seaside escape.
